Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding. When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." — Jn 2:1-3

From The Servant's Quarters

- There's nothing "ordinary" about Ordinary Time in our church calendar. ("Ordinary really refers to "ordinal numbers," not a sense of the mundane. It's a way of counting the weeks in between the major seasons of our faith celebrations.) This weekend is the Second Sunday of Ordinary Time. We have another "epiphany," another manifestation of the power and the glory of God in our world. At the prompting of his mother, Jesus changes the ordinary water of the ceremonial jugs into the best wine ever served. Doesn't that make you want to party where Jesus parties?! This event would certainly make Jesus the lead off story on Entertainment Tonight! The gospel writer tells us that this is the first of "seven signs" Jesus performs.

prompting of his changes the ordinary water of the ceremonial jugs into the best wine ever served. Doesn't that make you want to

- What is it that is made manifest with this first sign? The in-breaking of the era of the messiah into the human condition. Marriage celebrations are symbolic of the era that is to be ushered in by the messiah. The rich food and overflowing of choice wine points to God's abundance showered indiscriminately upon the people of God.

- What is to be our response? In the words of the Blessed Mother, "Do whatever he tells you." Trust in the word of Jesus. Accept the word of Jesus. In living this way there is an experience of the glory of the Lord. "With the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption."

- Friday, January 18th, is the beginning of the annual week of prayer for Christian Unity. We are extremely blessed in our area to have fruitful relationships with our other Christian sisters and brothers. What an inspiration the CCOS is! The Cooperating Churches of Sussex have a well-coordinated ministry to those with an assortment of needs in our community, from food and shelter to various supportive services to individuals and families experiencing tough times. We continue to pray that this "cooperating attitude" might help more people in our area experience the overflowing abundance of the "choice wine" of the Kingdom of God.

- After the church service a woman approached the preacher and apologized for her husband walking out during the sermon. She asked the preacher not to take it personally. He responded, "That's OK." She replied, "He's been walking in his sleep since he was a child."

Addressing the Need for Immigration Reform

Since 2005 the US Catholic Bishops through their Justice for Immigrants campaign have sought to unite Catholics in support of comprehensive immigration reform. Their position is rooted in Catholic social teaching which at its core seeks to uphold the human dignity of all people, to uphold family unity, and to care for the poor and the stranger in our midst – concerns for which our current series of immigration laws miss the mark. One need not look further than the life and words of Jesus Christ to understand that persons on the move—refugees, migrants, immigrants—are special in the eyes of God.

The US Bishops are asking that a new comprehensive law include the following:

- A path to citizenship for undocumented persons in the country
- Preservation of family unity as a corner-stone of our national immigration system
- Legal paths for low-skilled immigrant workers to come and work in the United States
- Restoration of due process protections to our immigration enforcement policies
- Addresses the root causes (push factors) of migration, such as persecution and economic disparity

You can ask members of Congress to address comprehensive immigration reform at www.justiceforimmigrants.org Questions? Debra Schneider at djschneider@wi.rr.com Now is the time for reform. Our nation and our families can no longer wait.

Fields of Hope & Dreams Community Garden

St. James two community gardens (i.e. Field of Hope and Field of Dreams) have been approved as South Eastern Wisconsin Master Gardener Volunteer (SEWMGV) sites. The awarding came on Monday, January 4th from Ann Wied, Consumer Horticulture Educator/Community Development Educator, Waukesha County UW Cooperative Extension. As a Master Gardener's site, we will attract more volunteers throughout Southeastern Wisconsin to help with our garden project. We will also have access to the UW-Extension's educational resources and other benefits. This was preceded by a lengthy application process with the help of parish members/Master Gardeners: Ed Boss, Debra Schneider and Gertrud Zoeller. Of course all of our garden volunteers were listed in the application along with a photo album picturing our gardens and our volunteers in action. Not all gardens get approved and it demonstrates the hard work, effort, and expertise that have already been put into our project. You can expect more educational information showing up at church related to plants, composting, gardening, and the environment. Can you feel the spirit and the excitement of this project as we begin our fourth year of gardening and providing fresh fruits and vegetables to the Cooperating Churches of Sussex's (CCOS) food pantry? If you'd like to join our volunteers: call (414) 587-1202 or email: pschneider@wi.rr.com And thank you for your past support.

THE SUSSEX FOOD PANTRY IS IN NEED OF THE FOLLOWING ITEMS:

1. Boxed potatoes, mashed, au gratin etc
2. Canned beans - not green (baked, pinto, kidney, . . .)
3. Canned meals (ravioli, spaghettios, etc)
4. Toilet paper
5. Cake mixes (Jiffy or full size)
6. Jello

As always, all food items are appreciated but the above are most needed at this time.

Lenten Small Group Series: Habits of the Heart - Seeking a Change of Heart.

An invitation to 'see with our eyes and perceive with our heart'.

To see as Jesus sees is to be compassionate and open to new ideas and new experiences in our relationship with God and each other. In Habits of the Heart we will reclaim the original meaning of 'heart,' a word that points to the core of self - that place where intellect, experience and emotion converge - a place where we become more fully human. In this 5 week series, through Scripture, dialogue and example, we will explore 5 habits of the heart that we can use in our Lenten journey to lead us toward being more open with others and toward a closer heartfelt relationship with God. ... This Lent, you're invited to join a Habits of the Heart small group - on either Thursday evenings beginning Feb 21 from 6:30 to 8 pm at St. James or Saturday mornings from 9 to 10:30 am beginning Feb 16 at Good Shepherd. To participate in this Lenten series, please contact Debra Schneider at djschneider@wi.rr.com / 414.550.2167

A Note From Pam Our Parish Nurse:

If you have not gotten your flu shot please consider going and getting one soon. There is a high incidence of influenza in the Midwest states with many hospitals closing their emergency rooms due to the amount of patients being seen with the flu. Take some time this week and go get your flu shot. It is a safe way to protect yourself from getting the flu and most health insurers cover this injection.

The Rest of the Story

Be honest, when someone says “I am pro-life”, we immediately think they are against legalized abortion, and presume they are politically conservative. End of story. But as Paul Harvey used to say, “here is the rest of the story”.

Cardinal Joseph Bernardin, the former archbishop of Chicago, was certainly pro-life. However, in contrast to the single abortion issue focused political slogan, Cardinal Bernardin was “pro-all-life”. He was best known for his teaching about what he called “the seamless garment”. Cardinal Bernardin reminded us that our church believes that all life, given all are created by God, has intrinsic value and dignity. Our belief is seamless as in continuous, whole, complete, undivided.

As Catholics, we believe that there is a seamless dignity of life connecting all life from conception to natural death. What Cardinal Bernardin refers to as the “seamless garment”, the church refers to as the Consistent Life Ethic.

In practical application, what does this mean? It means we need to be more consistent and seamless with our laws and policies. It means that we should be concerned about protection of the child in the womb, as well as the child starving from hunger and malnutrition. It means we should be looking for ways to eradicate war, and wipe out euthanasia. It means we should oppose capital punishment, and reform our prison system providing opportunities to reform lives. The list is long. The need for human dignity is great.

Something else we believe in sisters and brothers is the power of prayer. We have an opportunity to spend some time before God, in the presence of the blessed sacrament, to pray for life – all life. For the fourth year, the deacons of the Archdiocese have organized a Holy Hour for Life. Our cluster of Good Shepherd, St. James and St. Mary’s will hold one at St. Mary’s Menomonee Falls this coming Wednesday January 23, 2013 at 6:00PM. Please consider joining us as we ask God to guide and inspire us in this important and holy work ... to assure dignity and respect for all life. Amen.
