St. James Faith Advocates Against Human Trafficking

Almost every month, the St. James Faith Advocates Against Human Trafficking selects a day to put together sandwiches as well as some healthy snacks and deliver to Franciscan Peacemakers. Franciscan Peacemakers go out to where young girls (& boys) are unwillingly being trafficked in Milwaukee, offering them lunch. They are often afraid to leave in fear of being beaten by their trafficker (pimp). But each week, their mission is to try and save them. Next date for making lunch for FP Street Ministry is Friday, May 24th, 2024. If you have an interest in learning more about this ministry, contact Deb Schneider at djschneider86@gmail.com. Simply get added to our signupgenius.com, and each month you can choose to be a helper. Instructions are there as well. It is simple and easy, and is NOT a monthly requirement, only if you are able to help! Thank you in advance for your generosity!
